

Draw the following on the blackboard and suggest the children design their own poster.

Design a WANTED poster to attract a best friend. Think about the sort of person required and in what way the designer of the poster would be a good friend in return. Possibly the posters could be displayed in the classroom or corridor and people encouraged to apply!